LAWSON IS OUT OF SIX-DAY RACE

Swede Compelled to Quit on Account of Injury to MacDonald.

 (Special to The Herald.)

New York, Dec. 13.—The team of MacDonald and Lawson was compelled to retire from the six-day bike race owing to injuries which befell • MacDonald. It was the result of an • was nuried three feet in the air and landed heavily or a spectator. Both fell senseless and lay as if dead and MacDonald, bleeding from a big gash on his head and unconscious, was carried into the camp of Fogler and Moran. A doctor put several stitches in MacDonald's head and later sent him to a nospital, where he is resting easy. Mat Downey, partner of Hardy Downing, was on the verge of stealing a lap this after conour. When Vanderstuyft's tire blew up and Matt lost the distance he had gained.

JACK O'BRIEN IN RING AGAIN

Famous Faker Fights Battle on the Square.

Phlladelphia, Dec. 13.—Jack O'Brien of this city made his first appearance in the ring tonight, since his fiasco with Tommy Burns in California, and knocked out Bill Heveron, the English heavyweight, in the opening round before the Industrial Athletic club.

O'Brien's first blow was a right to the jaw, which put Heveron down for the count. He staggered to his feet and was immediately floored again. As Heveron arose to his feet o'Brien steadied himself and sent another victous right to the jaw. Heveron did not land a single blow.
